MEMOIRS

ALWYN JAMES ATKINS

Alwyn James Atkins was born in Heflin, Alabama, August 5th, 1890, and was called from earth's labors to his heavenly reward on March 22nd, 1921, at St. Joseph's Infirmary, Atlanta, Ga., after an illness of several months. He was converted in early life and became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Heflin, Alabama. After completing the public school course in his home town he entered the University of Chattanooga in 1906, and graduated in 1910. The following year he entered Boston University School of Theology, from which he graduated in 1914. While in school there he served as student pastor at North Methodist Episcopal Church at Fall River, Massachusetts. Following this he took a graduate course at Harvard and was then given a regular charge at Chartley, Massachusetts. On June 30, 1915, he was married to Miss Julia E. Shaw, Fall River, Massachusetts. Mrs. Atkins and two children of tender age are left behind to feel the loss of a kind father and thoughtful, loving husband. They have been cheered in their sorrow by the tender sympathy of a multitude of friends who feel a personal bereavement in the going away of our brother when, to us, it seemed that his life-work was but fairly begun.

In October, 1917, Brother Atkins was transferred from New England Southern Conference to Holston and appointed to the pastorate of St. Mark's Church Chattanooga. In 1918 he was appointed to the Cleveland charge and was serving for a third year as pastor of this church at the time of his death. Brother Atkins was Conference Host at Cleveland last year. Little did we think at that time that he would be called to the church triumphant before the close of the Conference year. We remember his wife and the two children, Marjorie, age 4 years, and Alwyn Jr., age 2 years, and the impressive service on the afternoon of Conference Sunday last year at which Alwyn Jr. was baptized by Bishop Bristol.

Brother Atkins was thorough and conscientious in all his work as a minister, his sermons always bearing the mark of the student and thinker, his pastoral labor that of the Christian gentleman. As instructor in Bible Study at the Holston Conference Epworth League Institute he had won the hearts of this large company of young people who paid respect to his memory in a special memorial service held at the Institute last August. In pulpit power and in effectiveness as a pastor and administrator he was developing rapidly and gave promise of large achievement in the days to come. And now he has gone on even before reaching the noon time of life. We believe that the Heavenly Father has a place for him in the homeland where his ripening powers are to be employed and that, at the close of life's little day we shall meet him in that city where cometh no night.

"Servant of God, well done! Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle's fought, the victory won, enter thy Master's joy."

MARY AQUILA DOOLEY WALKER

Mary Aquila Dooley Walker was born September 10, 1851, and died at her home in Morristown, Tennessee, August 1, 1921, age 69 years, 10 months and 21 days. She was twice married, first to George McFee, in 1870, and to this union two daughters were born. These have all preceded her to their eternal reward. She was again married, July 16, 1884, to Rev. Thomas S. Walker who answered the summons some twelve years ago, and left his faithful companion and four children to battle with the conflicts of life. Sister Walker professed faith in Christ in her childhood and joined the M.E. Church, to which she remained a loyal and faithful member until her death. She loved her church, and it was always her pleasure to serve in whatever capacity she was able. She loved her home, and her children were the joy of her life, making any sacrifice for their welfare. The Bible was "The lamp unto her feet and the light unto her path" and during the years served as her pastor whenever I went into her home she wanted me to read from its pages and pray with her. Truly a good woman has fallen; but we weep not as those who have no hope for we know that we shall see her again. A short service was held at the home and the body was laid to rest beside her husband in the cemetery at Morristown to await the call when "The earth shall give up its dead; and the corruptible bodies of those who slept in Him shall be changed and made like unto His own glorious body; according to the mighty workings whereby He is able to subdue all things unto Himself."

MARY TRUAN DURHAM

Mary Truan Durham was born October 20, 1850, and departed this life at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Gibbs, Knoxville, Tennessee, April 2, 1921, having lived seventy years, five months, and twelve days. Sister Mary was converted when only fifteen years old and joined the church, and ever thereafter lived a Christian of the most excellent type. May 20, 1869, she was married to the Rev. J. M. Durham, an honored and worthy member of the Holston Conference, M.E. Church, for more than fifty years. Of this union eleven children were born, four died in infancy. Brother Durham and two daughters, Mrs. G. M. Norwood and Mrs. R. H. Williams, died some years ago. Mrs. J. W. Burson followed her April 5th, leaving three sons, W. L., H. W., T. H., and one daughter, Mrs. W. A. Gibbs with whom she lived, and where she was most graciously cared for, to mourn their loss. For more than 44 years Sister Durham was not only willing to share the privations and sacrifices incident to the life of the wife of an itinerant minister of the Methodist Church, but esteemed it a great privilege to be counted worthy to be called with her husband to lead "The Host of Israel". While he was away preaching Christ to others she worked for Him in the home. Her earnest Christian life in the home circle yielded its fruit in the conversion and Christian development of her children and neighbors' children. For years she was an invalid and suffered much. But with a strong faith in God she was submissive, and was indeed a most beautiful example of Christian patience. Her piety was deep, earnest, and uniform. That sweet spirit of submission was often expressed in words like these "The will of the Lord be done." She often spoke of her hope and prospects of Heaven. She was faithful to her home, her church, and her God. When He called she was ready. Like Paul having fought a good fight, finished her course, and kept the faith. She has entered into rest.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR EXAMINERS AND CANDIDATES

1. The work of the Board is divided into six groups. Admission on trial; first, second, third, and fourth years, and Local Orders. Each group to be in the hands of a committee—one of the committeemen to be chairman of the committee.
2. Mid-year examinations are required; time and place to be arranged and announced.
3. The day preceding the opening of the Annual Conference is the time appointed for examination.
4. The candidates are urged to buy their books at the very opening of the year, and study carefully the mid-year subjects, and after the mid-year examinations make complete survey of the remaining subjects immediately. The examiners are required to correspond with the candidates in the early winter, preparatory to mid-year examinations.
5. The requirements of the Discipline are to make the examinations written if practicable, and two weeks ahead of the Annual Conference to send written questions to the Chairman of the Board.
6. The chairman of each group is to submit in writing the grades of the candidates in his department of the registrar.
7. The provision for the mid-year examinations does not deprive any candidate of the opportunity of being examined on any subject at the time appointed for the examination at the Annual Conference.

REPORTS

BRISTOL DISTRICT

To adequately report the work accomplished on the Bristol District during the past year would require the mentioning of every pastor and every charge by name, which can hardly be done with justice to the space required for publication in our Conference Minutes; nor could we easily comply with the Conference rule, that "District Superintendents' Reports shall be limited to fifteen minutes." We shall, therefore, confine our report to the outstanding features of the District's accomplishments.

We began the year with a scarcity of eight men, but by dint of searching managed finally to find Supplies for every charge but one. The Wise Circuit is the one referred to. It is a rough and rugged charge in more ways than one, and with but little prospect for support for the one who might be willing to brave the hardships of the coalfields, and a country thickly infested with moonshiners and boot-leggers. This latter feature is not confined to this particular region in the Bristol District. The number of them is getting to be legion, and instances there are where Pastors' lives have been threatened. Your humble servant has had occasion to be wary of these lawbreakers. Once was he mistaken for a Revenue officer, once for a Boot-legger, and once was held up in the night time by the occupants of a Booze-wagon.

There has been one death among the Supplies. Brother J. J. Maness, esteemed local preacher, agreed after Conference last year to supply the St. Charles Circuit. After serving as pastor for three months, he was suddenly stricken with paralysis and lived for only a few days. He was a faithful pastor and his people love him. We secured the services of brother James H. Ely for the remainder of the year.

The health of our pastors has generally been good all the year, and their labors have been abundant. The tide of evangelism has run high in nearly every charge, resulting in 1235 conversions, and in 835 accessions. This is more than three hundred advance over last year.

The Sunday Schools have perhaps prospered as never before. The pastors seem to realize more and more the value of the Sunday School as a factor in Church life. We do not have as many other organizations as some of the other Districts of the Conference, and this fact may account for an added interest in this department. The greatest need that we have is that of leadership, so that all departments of the Church might be cared for. Our Sunday School enrollment exceeds nine thousand, and our field is so great that this number should be increased from year to year almost indefinitely. In many places these

Church and School buildings are small and inadequate to meet the demand of our Sunday Schools, while in a few places our Pastors have caught the vision of proper housing for this purpose and are properly equipping their plants. There are numerous places where Sunday School work could be carried on if a meeting place could be secured. If it is true, as we have been told, that 80% of the Church's membership comes from the Sunday Schools, then the Bristol District surely has a good outlook.

Some effort to add to the number of Epworth Leagues and Woman's Home Missionary Societies has been made, but with little success, though what we seem to have gained in efficiency.

Our District Conference was held at Gate City, June 23-25. Bishop Bristol was present for a portion of two days and presided while present. His inspirational addresses and his Sunday morning sermon were greatly appreciated.

Pastors' salaries were considerably increased at the beginning of the year. This increase amounted to $2500.00. We hope sometime to see the salaries of our pastors reach the standard set by the Conference. It is evident now that we shall have to suffer some chagrin on account of some salaries not being paid in full. It is being freely passed around that we have come upon hard times. The cut in the prices of farm products and the release of large numbers of men from public works has had a decided effect on Church finance, and the expected has come true in many places, so that the effect will be felt by a number of pastors. We are glad, however, to be able to report that some charges are paying out on salary, as well as increasing their collections, so that when the totals appear we hope to find that there has been no great let down.

Special mention should be made of new work that has developed during the year. In West Bristol under the efficient management of Rev. G. T. Byrd, a class of thirty members has been organized, and titled has been secured to property valued at two thousand dollars. With the aid of an emergency fund which was held for the District from last year a pastor was secured for the last four months of the year, and we now have a Sunday School of one hundred and thirty-five, with fine congregations attending the preaching services. Rev. Monroe Ball, a local preacher, is doing efficient service at this place. Here is a fine opportunity for a community school.

A class of thirty members has been organized near Elliston on the LaFayette charge. Brother F. B. Slusher, the LaFayette pastor, had a brush arbor built in which to hold a revival, and this class is the result. The people of this community are preparing to build a new church.

Brother Rupe, the Christiansburg pastor, pitched his tent at Vicker's Switch, in a community ripe for evangelism, and the result will be a new Church for this community. A thousand dollars has already been subscribed toward this enterprise. There are a number of other places in the District where pioneer work of this character would result in similar gains for the Kingdom.

Our building program has been largely hindered from lack of promised funds from the Centenary. At many places in the District a little help at this time would result in new Churches. With from one to three hundred dollars for each, a half dozen Church buildings would be ready for dedication within another year. We trust that a way may be found to assist these needy communities.

The greater building enterprises of the District are advancing slowly, but nevertheless, surely. Bristol Church has completed a basement with some other improvements at a cost of three thousand dollars. The exterior of the Nickelsville Church has been completed. The building is of cement brick, which presents an attractive appearance. The total cost will approximate twelve thousand dollars. Rev. O. A. Lawson, the faithful pastor has labored almost day and night in order that this Church might be dedicated this fall.

Robinette Memorial at Fairview is under way again, but will hardly hope to get their building completed before another year. This Church is a replica of the one at Pennington Gap, and was started by the Rev. T. J. Crumley. Throughout the District there have been many minor improvements made, and much credit is due the pastors who have labored so faithfully for the advancement of the Redeemer's Kingdom.

We have tried to labor faithfully all the year. Much has been accomplished, but not all that we would like to have seen. We have endeavored to be "All things to all men, if by all means we might save some". We trust only that Christ's Kingdom has been advanced by our efforts.

CHATTANOOGA DISTRICT

The Chattanooga District has Twenty-eight charges, 16 stations, and 12 circuits. Sixteen of these charges have Conference men for pastors, and twelve charges are supplied with local preachers the most of them attending our school at Athens, and for true devotion, untiring effort, and abundant zeal on the part of the pastors and laymen the year just closing has been a success. The reports of the pastors will show large results.

Special attention has been given to all the departments of our Church work, especially have we been working at our Centenary job, and while the results are not as large as we had expected, yet the reports from the various charges on the District will make a splendid showing, holding the standard up to the average, if not a little above that of the past years.

In January the Area Council met in Chattanooga which was well attended; and at the close of the Council meeting a great rally service was held in the First Church with Bishop Bristol presiding. Bishop Thomas Nicholson, and Bishop T. S. Henderson made splendid addresses at this meeting, which proved to be a great inspiration to our people in Chattanooga.

A District meeting was also held in Chattanooga in February which was a success in every way, and was quite a help to the pastors and laymen of the Chattanooga District.

Our Sunday Schools are growing. Men's classes, women's classes, young people's classes, boys' and girls' departments, all continue to increase, and we are greatly rejoiced to see this important branch of our Church advance.

The Epworth Leagues on this district are doing a fine work, they are aiding the pastors in their revival meetings, and are successful in leading many of the young people to accept Christ.

Increase in pastors' salaries has been made at Athens, Alton Park, Avondale, First Church, Highland Park, Manker Memorial, St. Marks, St. James, Cleveland, Etowah, Chatata Circuit, Red Bank, and Soddy. Also District Superintendent's salary increased some.

And here I state with sorrow the sad fact that on the 22nd of March, 1921, Rev. Alwyn Atkins, pastor at Cleveland passed from the Church Militant to the Church Triumphant. He was indeed a fine man, well equipped for life's work, diligent in his work, an earnest preacher, a faithful pastor, and sincerely loved by all his people. May the bereaved know the full comfort and hope the gospel he so fervently preached, and may they all be some day united in that home above.

"There is a world above,
Where parting is unknown;
A long eternity of love
Found for the good alone:
And faith beholds the dying here
Translated to that happier sphere."

Some improvements on our Church and Parsonage property has been made this year, but the phenomenal record of building and improvements of the past few years on the Chattanooga District, can not be duplicated in this report, but we want to mention a few places where improvements have been made. The First Church of Chattanooga has remodeled, refinished and beautified the interior of the Church at a cost of $6,500.00.

Our church at Soddy has been greatly improved. a basement has been put under the entire building with a fine heating plant, they have also purchased a parsonage, and in all, have spent $3,300.00, all of this has been paid but $1,200.00. Much credit is due Rev. Joe Hampton, the pastor, for this splendid work.

Our St. Marks Church was finished and dedicated by Bishop Bristol, January 23rd, and the unique feature of this dedication was that no collection was taken, all the debt was provided for before the day of dedication.

St. James Church under the splendid leadership of Rev. B. M. Morrison has taken on new life, the debt has all been paid, some improvements made on church and parsonage, and they have now the largest Sunday School and Congregation in the history of the Church.

Our church and parsonage at Cleveland has been improved at an expense of about $2,000.00. Rev. N. H. Cardwell a student from the Boston School of Théology has supplied this Church since May.

Etowah has improved its property in the sum of $1,000. Rev. W. K. Harris, the pastor, has had a fine year at Etowah and they are unanimous in asking for his return.

Red Bank has purchased a splendid lot to build a new church on, and Rev. W. E. Hotalen, the pastor, reports that the new church will be built soon.

A church on the Chatata circuit has also been improved at a cost of about $1,000.00. And lesser improvements have been made on many of the charges, and in all cases the money has been provided.

Our Chattanooga University has had a splendid year, under Dean Hooper, the acting President, last year was perhaps the best year of the Institution.

To our new President, Dr. Brown, we open our hearts and extend to him a hearty welcome, and we pray that the greatest possible success may attend him in presiding over this splendid University.

Our School at Athens—judging by results, this school has had the greatest year of its history. This has been made possible by our splendid equipment, the character of the student body, and the aggressive methods and work of the faculty.

HARRIMAN DISTRICT

Harriman District embraces eight whole counties and extends its borders more or less into nine others. Scattered over this mountainous territory, there are one hundred and three churches. These churches are grouped into twenty-seven charges; eight stations, and nineteen circuits. Fourteen charges are served by Conference men, the other thirteen, by supply pastors. Seven of these supply preachers farm or follow some other occupation as a necessary means of supplementing their meager salaries. To measure up to our opportunities in this difficult, yet promising field, we need more trained men and a better pastoral support.

In spite of industrial conditions, effecting the whole country and subjecting our faithful pastors and loyal people to sacrifice and in many instances to hardship, the work of the district has moved steadily forward with a good degree of success. The reports will show that more than $26,000.00 has been spent this year on building and improvement of Church and parsonage property. There will be an increase in ministerial support of about $1,000.00 over last year. It is generally conceded that this has been by far, the hardest year to collect for Centenary and other benevolent causes we have had since the Centenary campaign was launched. Some charges, however, will make a good showing in this direction, while others will fall off considerably in their collections. Being unable to secure full reports from the pastors on this item, I am unable to state here whether we will have a gain or loss. Probably a loss.

Our pastors have gone about their work faithfully and for the most part have done their work well. D. C. Slagle, Pastor of the Decatur charge, has been hindered considerably during the year on account of illness in his family. R. F. Ball, Pastor of the Norma and Oneida Charge, has been ill much of the time during the year, and at times, unable to fill his appointments. Mrs. T. V. Peters, wife of our faithful pastor at Harriman, was quite ill during the summer months. With these exceptions, no serious illness has invaded the homes of our pastors.

Burrville charge was left to be supplied at the last Conference. A few weeks later, John B. Peters was secured to take the Charge and finish up the year's work. Because of ill health W. O. Duncan gave up the work on Big Valley Charge last winter. At the opening of spring, O. W. Alexander took the work and served the Charge until the middle of July, when he asked to be relieved in order to pursue studies in the University of Chicago. J. N. Sadler was prevailed upon to take the Charge and finish up the work of the year. With this exception, all the pastors appointed at the Annual Conference remained on their Charges until the end of the year.

The new Church at Solway, Byington Charge, built last year but finished up this year at a total cost of about $3,000.00, was dedicated in July by L. D. Hamil. The New Church at Sunbright will be complete as soon as a new heating plant is installed. The congregation has been using the building during the warm weather. The total cost of this Church will be about $3,500.00. The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension has granted a donation of $570.00 to this project, but more is needed to finish the Church free of debt. H. A. Gamble, the pastor, deserves much credit for pushing the work through so near completion, in spite of difficulties and delays.

The new Church in Jellico is in the course of construction and when completed, will cost $50,000 to $60,000. It will be one of the most beautiful and modern churches in the Conference. This project receives $5,000 from Centenary funds this year. W. H. Ragan, the popular pastor, and his loyal official board are to be commended for getting the work under way after suffering several delays in securing plans and material. We hope they will be able to push the work to completion in the very near future.

Plans are on the way toward the construction of a new church at New Tazewell. In order to stimulate the growing interest in a new church program, Bishop Bristol was invited to visit this Community on Sunday, September the 11th. It was a day long to be remembered in New Tazewell, and in Claiborne County. None of our bishops it seems, had ever visited this section. The people came from every direction. The benches were carried out of the Church into the yard and were soon filled, while the rest of the crowd stood or sat on the lawn. From an automobile which served for a pulpit, Bishop Birstol preached a great sermon, which stirred the hearts of the audience. Drs. Martin, Emert, and Hubble were also present and made addresses during the day. Following this meeting, a committee has been taking subscriptions for the new Church. The report comes to me that more than $4,000 has already been subscribed with a fair prospect to bring the subscriptions up to $10,000. With help from Centenary funds, which we hope to get, we expect to build in this growing town a church costing about $20,000, which will not only make our work permanent in New Tazewell, but will encourage and strengthen our work in that whole section of Country.

The following churches have been repaired this year: Beaver Ridge, Crossville, Graysville, Harriman, Rockwood, Rugby Road, Vine Grove, and Well Springs.

Extensive repairs have been made on the District Parsonage at a total cost of $1,000. $400 of this comes from Centenary funds.

The Parsonage at Jellico has been remodeled at a cost of $2,000 which makes it as good as a new building. The parsonage at Clinton has received repairs costing $550. The parsonages at Rockwood, Vine Grove, and Andersonville have also been repaired. At Kingston, the old parsonage has been sold and a more suitable site has been secured for a new parsonage, which is now in the course of construction. When completed, it will cost $2,500 to $3,000 and will be one of the best in the district.

Several of these projects have received assistance from our Missionary Board.

With all this material improvement, the spiritual side of our work has not been neglected. Gracious revivals have been held in most of the Charges of the District. Aside from a few very fruitful revivals held by A. B. McKenzie, our Conference Evangelist, the pastors have for the most part held their own meetings, or have assisted one another in evangelistic efforts. As a result, the pastors have reported 1,100 professions and about 50 accessions to our Church. Owing to the fact that the Litton Charge with a reported membership of 258 was transferred to the Chattanooga District at the last Annual Conference, and Mays Chapel was transferred from Heiskell Charge to the Knoxville District, with probably fifty members together with a small loss of membership here and there, will cut our gain in membership down to a minimum when compared with the figures of last year.

The Sunday Schools for the most part have had splendid increase in attendance and we fully expect a gain in enrollment when the reports are tabulated. We very much need a wide-awake Sunday School man in this territory.

There are fifteen Ladies Aid Societies in the District. Most of these are doing splendid work along several lines of material improvement.

There are nine Epworth Leagues and several Junior Leagues. We need at least two dozen more of these organizations among our young people. One of our greatest needs in the district is enthusiastic, efficient leadership, and especially so among our young people.

In February, a District meeting was held in Harriman in the interest of the Centenary program. The meeting was very well attended, and the program rendered was inspirational and stimulating. Addresses were made by Bishop Bristol, Drs. Martin, Melear, Sullivan, Neal, and others. This meeting was followed by up group meetings held in the various charges. T. V. Peters, W. C. Martin Cicero Dobbs, H. A. Gamble, and others served as team workers visiting the Charges and presenting various phases of the Centenary work.

Our District Conference held in Byington in July was very well attended. The Conference sessions were enlivened by the stimulating addresses of our visitors. President Brown of the University of Chattanooga, Dr. Martin, Melear, Murkett, Prof. Kilburn, and others brought inspiration and encouragement by their timely addresses.

As to personal labors, I will say that I have travelled throughout the District making the rounds of the quarterly meetings and several special trips, assisting the brethren wherever I could, and looking after every interest of the work. I have preached at 210 services, held 101 Quarterly Conferences, visited in the homes of the people and at places of business as opportunity afforded. When not on the field, I have labored at my desk, and among other things accomplished there, I have mailed 1165 letters and 700 cards in the interest of the work.

All the hardships of the work have been fully compensated for by the kind reception I have received everywhere, by the exceedingly abundant hospitality of the people, by the fellowship of the brethren, and by the hearty co-operation and brotherly spirit which have characterized all our Quarterly Conferences.

"Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds,
Is like to that above.

"We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear."

When the Annual Conference adjourned last fall, every charge in the Johnson City District was supplied with a pastor except Elizabethton. In the month of November Rev. E. C. Powell was appointed, moved with his family to Elizabethton, and has continued there through the year.

W. A. Thompson resigned the Unicoi charge, to which he had been appointed for the second year. Late in the summer I appointed J. L. Cupp, who had returned from Colorado, to finish out the work of the year on this charge vacated by Brother Thompson.

W. S. Brackney, formerly a member of Holston Conference, but now a retired member of an Ohio Conference served one appointment of the Watauga Circuit part of the year. J. W. May took an appointment in the Georgia Conference, and N. R. McConnell from the New Jersey Conference, was transferred and appointed to Pittman Community Center in his stead. With the exception of these changes, the other pastors have all continued as appointed last fall, and all have gone along in the work of the year with zeal, fidelity, and patience.

The year has been fruitful in revivals and accessions to the church. Many of the pastors have had splendid revival meetings at all the appointments, and these statistics will show up well in the reports.

The benevolent collections will probably not appear as well as last year. But proportionately to other sections of the country and Conference, it is probable that we will make as good a report. This district is mostly rural, and as all know, money is not flowing into the country now as it did when the prices of farm products was as they were last year.

Financial conditions appear to be fairly good among our people who live in the towns in the district, but in some of our rural churches and sections the reports will be less in comparison with last year on all financial claims.

The entire benevolences will probably total around $10,000.00. The statistics will show about $4,000.00 increase in pastoral support, and about $30,000.00 paid out for new buildings and improvements. We have had about 1,500 professions of religion on the district and about 600 additions, with a probable net gain in membership of 400.

Ground has been broken and the foundations laid for our new churches at Sulphur Springs Camp Ground and at Kingsport. Many improvements on churches and parsonages have been made. The new parsonage at Baileytown is completed. Telford charge has had a remarkable year in the improvement of the churches of the charge and the parsonage. The new Slagles Chapel in Carter County is now completed and about ready for dedication.

Our new Pittman Community Center on Webbs Creek in Sevier County was dedicated by Bishop Bristol on September 25th. This represents one of the great outstanding accomplishments of the Centenary Program of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension for our section. The school opened with a fine enrollment of 150 pupils. It represents so far an outlay of about $30,000.00. The building and rooms are equipped with every modern convenience for the purpose of serving the moral and intellectual needs of the large population to which the school will minister.

In the pursuit of my own duties I have traveled about 6000 miles during the year. I have held 104 business sessions of the Quarterly Conferences, have preached 184 times, and have used up 160 days of the year in travel and service on the district. I am profoundly grateful to God for continued good health and sufficient energy for my responsibilities through the year.

KNOXVILLE DISTRICT

Unusual difficulties have confronted the church this year. The challenges thus brought to our ministers and laymen has not baffled them in their effort, nor defeated them in achievements purposed, attempted, and wrought.

The long expected paralysis in the business world arrived coincident with our new Conference year. As the purchasing value of a dollar rapidly rose toward pre-war equivalents the difficulty with which the dollar was obtained, gave rise to an appreciation of money which resulted in a peculiar comradeship between the average churchman and his money not unlike the adhesive union existing between Ephraim and his idols. This sudden revolution created an emergency which gripped and threatened the whole range of religious activities. The consequent drying up of the fountains of Christian beneficence resulted not only in embarrassment to the ministry on account of inadequate support and in increased difficulties to our great Boards because of depleted treasuries, it also carried with it the inevitable and deadly scourge of spiritual stagnation. As a consequence stewardship assumed a new meaning, not only in the parsonage pantry but in the counsels of the great Boards presiding over the issues of the advance program of our great church involving world wide interests of the Kingdom of God.

The strategy of the church in successful contention with the emergencies arising in great historic movements such as the world has just experienced has been one of the distinctive features evidencing not only her Divine origin but her ability to triumphantly conquer the world for Jesus Christ. In fact the ecclesiastical statesman expects to discover in every great crisis the elements, which when woven together by a great and purposeful strategy, provide an advantageous solution of difficulties to be overcome. A wise providence has led us in the discovery and utilization of at least some of the exponents created by the very difficulties to be overcome.

The first step in a logical order of procedure was to revolve the disk until the financial pinch could be seen from the proper angle. It was easy to lead the intelligent believer to see that the greater value a dollar assumed and the greater the difficulty with which a dollar was acquired, the swifter would run a valid remedy to cure the spendthrift habit. Our first effort was to convince the leadership in our churches that in the ratio with which people ceased to spend money with prodigality for illegitimate and needless purposes, the greater would be their ability to invest in the high and permanent values of life.

We made much also of the element of faith. Any widow could feed a prophet of God from a barrel of meal so long as streams of prosperity kept the barrel fed to the brim. But only she who believes in God can gamble on the last thin crust while famine strides in seven league boots and the carcasses of the lean kind rattle in the dreams of the king. That the "Children of God walk not by sight but by faith", and that "only they who seek first the Kingdom of God and his righteous" enjoy assurance of absolute exemption from want ceased to be merely scriptural phrases to be quoted in prayer meeting and assumed the sanctified dignity characterizing the substantial principle of every day life.

Thus the foundation was laid for achievements otherwise impossible to obtain.

The pressure is unduly high in the sphere of building and improvements. In so very many places our people were not provided with the equipment essential to the largest measure of success, to say nothing of quarters in some degree at least in keeping with modern show houses and other public hall of entertainment so well designed for utility and for public comfort. The heroism of our people in their attempt to make better provision for the successful prosecution of the spiritual program of the church by providing better material facilities has been sublime. Our church at Pigeon Forge has been completed. More than $5,000 has been expended in the completion of this structure, the entire cost of which has been approximately $12,000. The heroic congregation at Niota has faced difficulties which were positively staggering. Churches very decidedly stronger have hesitated and faltered in contemplation of difficulties much less formidable. But our congregation at this point has begun and almost completed since last Conference a splendid brick edifice reflecting great honor upon the church. The aggregate cost of this structure has been approximately $12,000. The finest achievement in this kind of constructive work has been at Inskip. A spirit of unrest characterized the situation at this place. A number of good financial supporters had removed their membership in changing their residences. After a vigorous canvass the subscriptions were at least $300 less than the budget. A substantial number of members were out of employment. The building was defective as well as inadequate. With a vision like unto a prophet the pastor and people decided to rebuild the church. An improvement was begun and completed at a cost of $6,000. Four thousand of this has been paid. The pastor's salary was paid in full and a strong resolution adopted in the Quarterly Conference requesting his return.

At Pleasant Hill on the Maryville Circuit a beautiful brick structure was begun last year. This project was carried on to successful completion this year and was dedicated free of debt. The cost of this building was $8,000.

At Murphy College the first in a large group of proposed building has been in process of construction this year. This dormitory with rooms for ninety students is a prophecy of that which is yet to come in the development of a great program for this fine institution located in one of the most resourceful territories in the South for our Methodism.

Other improvements meeting distinct need on various charges to the amount of approximately $10,000 have been made.

The building program has merely begun. Next year's forecast predicts the largest in the history of the District. At Oakwood, dirt has been broken for a building that will cost probably in excess of $25,000. This project will be carried out next year beyond question. At Park City, plans are ready for immediate action. The plans for a $50,000 structure are already approved. A subscription of $15,000 has been raised this year. The Centenary is behind this enterprise and a great achievement will be wrought there next year. At Loudon, a twin project to that at Niota as reported heretofore, will be carried on to completion. The old church has been torn down and work has already begun on a new $10,000 structure. This will put Methodism on the map in this, the oldest and one of the most classic little towns in the state. At Alcoa, the babe in the large family of charges on the district, a substantial organization has been effected and a building that will cost approximately $4,000 will be projected early in the year. A donation has been granted from the Board at Philadelphia and money is being raised on the ground. Our little mission at South Knoxville has begun to see the dawn of a new day. A fine lot has been secured and the foundation is already in for a Bungalow Church that will cost probably $4,000. The church at Maryville is in the midst of a great campaign and one of the best church buildings in the Conference is to be erected next year. Cash to the amount of $27,000 has already been raised and deposited in bank. Subscriptions to the amount of $10,000 have already been secured. Thus a long felt need is to be met in next year's program.

Every interest of the benevolent interests of the church has had diligent and constant attention. In view of the unusual financial conditions, results are very satisfactory.

In this age of distinctive organization, one of the outstanding features of our district policy has been renewed emphasis on the value of organization in the church. With the transfer of emphasis from the spasmodic and emotional to the sane and purposeful motives of life, the church school now occupies a strategic position. This does not mean that the deeper feelings of our holy religion have been abandoned. It simply means that feelings directed by intelligence and governed by self control will not only save us from fanaticism, but will bulk large in the great harvest field of results. Hence the value of the Sunday School, the Epworth League, the Junior League, the Ladies' Aid, the great missionary societies, the Social, Educational, and other organizations given to the promotion of the group and crowd movements actuated by religion and controlled by intelligence, has been intensely emphasized.

The supreme work of the church and the great end of all her activities should be, of course, identical with the motive of Him who came "not to be ministered unto but to minister, and to give himself a ransom for many—to seek and to save that which was lost”. The one supreme reason for better houses of worship, better and more efficient leadership, and organization, a stronger ministry with more adequate support, stronger Benevolent Boards, with immense sums of money, is to the one great end and purpose that people may be saved from the stain and guilt—the power and dominion of sin. In the absence of a supreme emphasis upon the salvation of the lost the Church loses her distinctive identity. True to this conception the evangelistic program has constituted the paramount issue on this district. Pronounced emphasis has been placed upon the advantage to be taken of the psychology created by the conspiring circumstances producing the transition of the hour. In the financial stress following one of the most sudden and terrific deflations in the history of revolutions, effecting the standards of value in mediums of exchange, the peculiar attitude of the average man was opportune for the conviction that “A man’s life consisteth not in the abundance of the things that he posseth”—that “man lives not by bread alone”. Men were growing tired of substituting fiction for fact. The frivolities of pleasure and the shams of luxury had deadened the physical sensibilities until the sting had destroyed the thrill. Thus a mighty hour had arrived when Jesus Christ who holds the priceless gifts of life’s unchanging verities need but to be presented in the glorious “challenge of a new chance to be good”. “Preach Jesus, for the multitudes are ready to hear Him gladly” was the watch word carried from the largest church in the city to the remotest and smallest in the rural parish. The pastors took up the note and the weary, heart-sick, prodigal welcomed the voice of a gracious invitation to come and be fed. The writer shares the common joy of the faithful pastors and their churches in the abundant harvest garnered from the ranks of the lost. As nearly as I can compute in the absence of reports arriving too late to record near two thousand souls have professed to have found their redeemer at our altars this year.

While we have encountered the proverbial difficulty in showing a net gain in membership proportionate to the number of conversions, somewhere near twelve hundred members have been added to the church.

Not satisfied with merely leading souls to God and into fellowship with the church, we have made desperate efforts to secure a purposeful dedication of the entire range of life powers to the promotion of the Kingdom. That to give the life with all the powers possessed is merely the inauguration of an ever increasing capacity unfolding and ripening with the accumulation of the years was the ideal held with sustained emphasis before the expanding visions of life.

Desperate as was the effort to get men for God, no less desperate was the effort to get all the man there was in each new recruit for the King. We proceeded upon the presumption that for a soul to find God is to find the secret of discovering not only its powers but the secret by which the highest intensification of its powers is to be realized. “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ. According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love. * * * Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ."

HARVARD PLAN OF ENTERTAINMENT

Whereas, None of the churches within our bounds, for the past year or two have invited the Conference to hold its session with them, due not so much to the disappearance of the spirit of hospitality as to changed industrial conditions; and,

Whereas, It is hurtful to the Church as well as embarrassing and somewhat humiliating to assemble for our annual session from year to year with no response from the churches to the demand for entertaining communities;

Therefore, Resolved that we hereby adopt what is known as the Harvard Plan of Entertainment;

Resolved, (2) That we instruct the District Superintendents to apportion, at the time of the First Quarterly Conference, to each pastoral charge, a sum equal to one per cent (1%) of the pastor's salary; to be known as the Holston Conference Fund; to select a treasurer for said fund, who shall receive and hold this money, subject to the action of the Conference at its next session, when this action shall be completed, and rules for the application of this fund adopted.

Resolved, That the District Superintendents shall urge, where necessary, that this money be collected and transmitted to said Treasurer, along with other Conference Collections.

EDUCATION

The high standard maintained in the educational work of the Methodist Episcopal Church should excite our pride and enlist our interest.

The Board of Education, a constituted agency for the promotion of our educational interests, has seen the work grow to its present proportions. Through its Loan Fund thousands of deserving students have been helped. We heartily endorse the Board in its forward looking program.

The University of Chattanooga

The College of Liberal Arts of the University of Chattanooga starts the year with the largest enrollment in its history, an increase of nearly forty per cent having been reached over last year. Its standard is high and credits from the University are honored in our best graduate schools.

The institution is fortunate in securing as its new president, Dr. Arlo Ayers Brown, who has entered upon his work with much zeal and enthusiasm. Under his able administration we confidently expect rich results.

The University is in need of more money if it is to serve its constituency. In securing an enlarged endowment our ministers and our Laymen's Association can render invaluable assistance.

The Athens School

The Athens School under Dean Robb enters upon what promises to be one of its best years. The first month of the present year recorded thirty more men and six more women than was covered by the same period last year.

The faculty of the School is one of the best in its history. The instruction is thorough and painstaking. The expenses are low, with numerous opportunities for self-help, so that any young man or woman who has sufficient ambition and grit can get the benefits of the institution.

Thirty ministerial students are enrolled, a number of whom are serving charges in the Conference. A decidedly religious atmosphere prevails in the School.

The operation by the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Elizabeth Ritter Home for girls in connection with the School is one of its valuable features.

The new department of religious education and rural leadership recently established by the Rural Department of the Board of Home Missions is already doing a fine work, and bids fair to render a great service in preparing men for the rural work of the church, in particular, and for more efficient work in general.

Murphy College

Murphy College, under President Bishop, is enjoying much prosperity. The new property purchased in 1919 has been carefully plotted and plans drawn for seven new buildings. The first unit, a dormitory for boys is nearing completion. It is 157 feet long, 45 feet wide at one end, and 77 feet at the other, and will accommodate 90 students. It meets a long felt need. We confidently expect to see the completion of the entire plant at an early day and when this is accomplished, Murphy College will have an equipment second to none in the South.

We are pleased to report that the Woman's Home Missionary Society of Holston Conference is planning to have a Home for girls at Murphy College, and we commend this laudable undertaking.

State University

We must take into account our relation to the educational institutions supported by the State. Many of our young people are entering such institutions. We recognize the growing importance of the relationship between the University of Tennessee and our Knoxville Methodism. The Rev. J. J. Ellington, associate pastor of First Church, Knoxville, is doing a splendid work among the students of the State University and we recommend that this Conference give the Board of Education the largest possible support in carrying forward this matter of pastoral oversight among the student body.

Wesleyan Academy

For the past forty years this institution has been doing a vitally important service, not only for the advancement of Methodism in East Tennessee, but also for the advancement of public education. Through stress and storm of financial embarrassment it still survives as the logical center for the establishment of a strong Methodist school. And we hope that the Brethren of the church and all friends of education everywhere, will see to it that Wesleyan Academy be classed as one of our best secondary schools. We have everything except financial means—a climate unsurpassed; a community of Christian citizens; and a host of young people hungry for educational opportunity.

Its work for the present scholastic year opened August 31st, with the following instructors in charge:

Benjamin H. Bowers, Principal, Miss Eileen Register, A.B., Miss Irene Keebler, Miss Elsie Shanks, Prof. I. N. Pickering, Mrs. Hazel Thompson, Miss Maude Reynolds, and Miss Mariadah Huffaker. Misses Huffaker and Keebler have charge of Music and Domestic Science, respectively, and, as pertains to their work, their ability is unquestioned. The other members of the faculty have had either academic or collegiate training.

The State High School Inspector of Tennessee has placed the Academy on the list of first class High Schools. Therefore a Diploma from the Academy entitles its holder to a certificate to teach for one year in the public schools of the State without examination, and also entrance to the Freshman Year in the State University.

The enrollment has increased steadily since the opening of the term until it is now 230. Many more students are expected at the opening of the second semester.

Our present needs are a chemical laboratory, a boys' dormitory, and a field agent to secure the necessary funds. When these will have been provided Wesleyan Academy will be prepared to do more thorough and efficient work.

RESOLUTIONS CONCERNING UNIVERSITY OF CHATTANOOGA

(a). Realizing the necessity of providing the best possible educational facilities for our young people in order to prepare them for successful achievement as Christian home-makers, laymen, and ministers, this Conference pledges its hearty support to the proposed plan of the Trustees of the University of Chattanooga to raise in the year 1922 a fund which will provide an adequate endowment and permit the expansion of this growing institution located in Chattanooga and Athens, Tennessee.

(b). We record our enthusiastic approval of the plan of the trustees to request from the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church the assistance of the Department of Finance of the Board in leading this forward movement.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

The Bible is still the greatest seller on the bookshelves of the world. The demand for the Holy Scriptures is greater than at any time in the past. The Bible is still the greatest single evangelizing force in the world. The obligation resting upon the church to give the Bible to the whole race in the languages spoken by men the world over was never so binding as now. It is the only way out of the dark. The fundamental principles of God's Word are still the guiding star of the nations and nothing can take their place.

This work of Bible distribution is pre-eminently a church task. It is not right to turn it over to irresponsible commercial interests and allow them to exploit the Bible for the sake of gain. The poor in all sections of the country are being imposed upon by men greedy of gain who are making merchandise out of the instinctive love that people have for the Word of God. The church cannot afford to permit this to go on. She cannot evade the responsibility for Bible translation, publication, and distribution, any more than she can evade the responsibility of preaching the gospel by word of mouth. They are God's two ordained agencies and no man can put them asunder.

The budget of the Bible Society for this current year is $1,222,367 for its world-wide work. About $400,000 of this will come back from sale of Scriptures; about one hundred thousand will be received from legacies and invested funds; the remainder must come from the free-will offerings of churches and individuals. The Bible Societies of the world, supported by the offerings of the churches, supply five-sixths of the whole Bible output of the world, and 99 per cent of the languages in which the Bible is now being read. In other words, the world is dependent on Bible Societies, working as the agencies of the Church, for its Bible supply. This is as it should be.

The demands upon the Society are greater every year. Every new missionary sent out increases the demand for the Bible and thus intensifies the work of the Bible Society

We, therefore recommend and again solicit your prayers and hearty cooperation. We urge upon every pastor the duty of keeping this work before his people. We ask every church to observe Bible Sunday, the last Sunday in November.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

The Sunday School as an auxiliary of the church is the door through which more than 85 per cent of our membership comes.

No work in our church is of more vital importance. It is this work that pertains to the religious training of our children.

We therefore as your committee, recommend that special emphasis be placed upon this part of our work. That in every way possible we should raise the standard of our schools. By more thorough organization, see that our schools are all graded, and that they not only be provided with our own literature for class work, but with all the good books and papers necessary for the advancement of the pupil.

We further urge all our pastors, S.S. superintendents, teachers, and leader so observe, wherever it is practicable, the special days for the Sunday School during the year, and in every way possible stress the great importance of the Sunday School.

Respectfully submitted

SOCIAL SERVICE

Whereas, We find in all men a social nature; and,

Whereas, We believe that the great God, who calls men to preach, calls them also to cultivate among men the social side of life: and,

Whereas, the Son of God, Himself, the greatest preacher who ever came to earth, cultivated both in Himself and in the lives of the people whose lives He touched, the social side of life;

Be it Therefore Resolved, That we, as pastors, move as rapidly as possible toward the goal of putting on a Social Service Program, in all our churches, and in every department of the church, which will raise the standard of social life, and social service in our great church, and put it in the forefront of this great movement and on that high plane which will be well pleasing in the sight of the Master;

Be it Further Resolved, That we commend to our people the fine work now being done by Prof. W. Baxter Gass, secretary Social Service, State Charities of the State of Tennessee with headquarters at Nashville, and that we co-operate with him as far as practicable in putting on his great program.

This co-operation may, of course, be given in several different ways, the most effective of which, perhaps, would be the opening of our churches, hearts, and homes to him.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE

Inasmuch as experience and the Holy Scriptures teach that humanity needs a definite portion of time systematically set apart for rest from secular employment, and for intellectual and spiritual improvement, and,

Whereas, Our Creator has graciously provided for these needs by setting apart one day in seven for this purpose,

Therefore Be It Resolved: 1st, That we, the members of the Holston Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church hereby express ourselves against all customs and practices which tend to desecrate the Christian Sabbath, and thereby deprive humanity of the blessings which it brings when rightly observed;

2nd, That we pledge ourselves to support every measure which will tend to perpetuate it as a holy day that humanity may forever enjoy the blessings of this holy institution.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

The young life of Methodism is her greatest asset and herein lies her supreme opportunity.

The Epworth League is a great organization. It is doing a splendid and much needed work by encouraging and training the young folk to take their place as active workers in the church.

The weekly programme is giving the young people an opportunity to study some of the subjects so vital to the future life of the church. These meetings are training and inspiring young people to take up special work in the church.

Through these meetings boys and girls are inspired to make definite decision to accept Christ, as shown by the "Win My Chum" meetings.

The League Institute is a yearly blessing. It furnishes an opportunity for pleasant associations, study, and recreation.

Hearing the prominent and consecrated speakers and workers in this Institute work inspires the young people to better service and some to definite service for God and the church. Let us, as pastors, call the attention of our young people to the great opportunity furnished them where they can spend their vacation to such good profit to themselves and the local church.

We, your committee, urge that the pastors of this Conference encourage the Epworth League work in all our classes.

CHURCH LITERATURE

In the beginning of Methodism John Wesley, under divine guidance, saw that unless the mind and heart of the people were rightly fed there would be little or no progress in sane knowledge. He therefore placed in the hands of the people, and recommended his followers to do likewise, the best literature of the day.

Ever since, Methodism has stood for nothing less than the most wholesome literature that the Christian mind and heart could produce. And we have today the greatest house of good books in the world. And with her multiplied thousands of volumes, her many excellent periodicals, and her high grade Sunday School lesson helps, innumerable homes and hearts have been and are being blessed.

But as we realize there is a great flood of cheap and worthless, and even demoralizing literature coming from the press today, and that there is great danger of our young people developing a taste for the low-grade publications, it therefore behooves us as Methodist ministers and pastors to see to it that the homes of Methodism are supplied with the highest quality of reading matter that can be had and that we urge our parishoners to patronize as far as possible our own Book Concern, not only because they ought to be loyal Methodists, but also because we believe this is the greatest source of good literature in existence.

And we trust that our Book Editor will guard well our orthodoxy. We highly praise our own Methodist Advocate-Journal with its very efficient editor, Dr. J. M. Melear, and recommend the placing it in every home in Methodism. We heartily endorse the campaign for 1,000 new subscribers to the Methodist Advocate-Journal and pledge our hearty support in making it possible.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS

Your Committee on Conference Claimants wish to call your attention to the following:

The amount received from the Book Concern is not so large this year as last, yet we are learning and coming to a more adequate care for our faithful and deserving claimants. We rejoice in the fact that the Treasurer of the Preachers' Aid Society brings to our Conference a dividend of $1,500.00, an increase over last year of near $700.00. This should inspire us to greater victories, but in view of the fact that the number of Conference Claimants in our Conference is on the increase, would it not be well for us to increase the permanent fund of our Preachers' Aid Society? Believing that we should, we recommend that this Conference request the Board of Trustees of this Society to employ a Field Agent for the collection of such funds for this purpose, provided for and in accordance with Item 2, Section 1, Article 5, of the Constitution, page 98, Conference Journal 1920.

TEMPERANCE

We look with pride upon the strides of progress that have been made by the cause of temperance in the last half century and we attribute the achievements of the past to the fact that the church of Christ is slowly but surely coming into her own and is taking her rightful place in the world.

We recognize with a very deep feeling of appreciation the work done by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and of our own Board of Temperance, Prohibition, and Public Morals.

But so long as our people fail to use self-restraint, the forces of righteousness will not be justifiable in remaining at ease in Zion.

Therefore the battle is only half fought and the victory half won. In view of the lowering of the moral standards and the loosening of ideals following the great world war, we urge every pastor to heartily participate in the plans of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition, and Public Morals of our church in re-establishing and maintaining the highest standard of living in the home, in the church, and in the state.

SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS

Assembly Grounds

Whereas, the Methodist Episcopal people have not anything that corresponds to Assembly Grounds in the South, as some other people have; and,

Whereas, the Epworth League Institute of the Holston Conference in their annual gathering last August appointed a committee looking to a project of this kind with expectation that the Holston Conference would appoint a committee to co-operate with theirs.

Therefore Resolved: That we appoint a committee of three members of the Conference to jointly consider the development of this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Mountain Schools

Noting the work being done known as Mountain Work in this territory, under the auspices of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, directed by Dr. J. S. Burnett of the Holston Conference, we commend this sort of service and urge the continuation and farther development of activities within the bounds of the Chattanooga Area.

Summer School

We also express our appreciation for the service of the Summer School established at Athens by the Board of Home Mission and Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church and invite the continuation of this important school.

Athens School

We further express our most hearty appreciation for the Department of Rural Training at Athens now under the direction of Rev. R. A. Kilburn, and the plans of surveys being conducted by him in the territory; and regarding the importance of this department and noting that the monies given to our district will not permit the continuation of said department, we kindly but urgently request the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, through the rural department, under direction of Dr. Paul Vogt, to make additional appropriations from the fund of the Board of Home Mission and Church Extension and provide adequately for the continuation of this splendid department.

The Committee on District Conference Records reports that the records of the Bristol and Johnson City Districts were presented to the committee for examination and were found to be correctly kept. The other records for other districts were not respectively submitted.

SUMMER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Believing that there is no aspect of the work of the church which is more important today than the training of its ministry, this Conference requests the Commission on Conference Course of Study to unite with them in a Summer School of Theology to be held at Athens, Tennessee, for the young men in Conference course of study.

CO-OPERATING AND CONSULTING COMMITTEE ON ENDOWMENT

Whereas, the Annual Conference has unanimously endorsed the movement for an additional endowment for the University of Chattanooga; and,

Whereas, we feel that a closer relationship should exist between the University and the Holston Annual Conference; and,

Whereas, this endowment campaign will involve every charge and every minister in the Conference:

Therefore, Be It Resolved, 1st, That we have a committee on Co-operation and Consultation to co-operate with the Trustees of the University in the endowment campaign;

2nd, That we ask the Bishop and his cabinet to appoint one minister from each district to represent the interest of the Annual Conference.

RESOLUTIONS

In the providence of Almighty God, the Holston Conference has been privileged to assemble in annual session and in recognition of this goodness we lift our hearts in praise and thanksgiving to Him.

Resolved, 1st, That we record our appreciation of the faithful service rendered this Conference by its secretaries and officers;

2nd, That we have been delighted and greatly benefitted by the addresses from the various representatives of our Church, and the masterly way in which they have placed before our eyes and minds the unequalled opportunities and stupendous tasks that challenge our very best effort.

3rd, That the visits of Bishop Bristol, our resident bishop, and Bishop Cooke, whom we claim is one of us, have been enjoyed by all, and especially their profound messages from time to time.

4th, That the Presidency of Bishop E. G. Richardson over this session of our Conference has been in the highest degree satisfactory to us all. His brotherly kindness, his impartial administration, his dispatch of business and his wonderful lecture, addresses, and sermons have met the expectation and won the admiration of all who have heard him.

5th, That this Conference tender its fullest and most sincere thanks to the good people of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Brother Powell, the sister churches and all the good citizens of Elizabethton for their cordial reception and royal entertainment during our stay in their midst.
